

CHEN Luming

Position: Partner

13916605561

Chenluming@anlilaw.com

Job Location: Shanghai

Language:

Chinese, English

Professional Qualification:

National Bar of China, Bar Admission in PRC

Working Experience

- 1986 – 1992 · Deputy Secretary-General of the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission Beijing
- 1995 – 1999 · 1
- 999 – 2002 · 2002 – Associate, DePricewaterhouseCoopers
- 2008 Associate, O & Myers Law Firm
- 2008 – 2011 Partner, King & Wood Mallesons
- April 2011 – April 2024 Partner, Shanghai Office of Jones & Wood Mallesons
- Partner, Jun He Law Offices, Shanghai
- April 2024 - present Partner, Anley (Shanghai) Law Firm

Education Background

- Juris Doctor, Harvard Law School
- Master of Arts, Fudan University
- Bachelor of Arts, Fudan University

Social Activities

- Arbitrator, HKIAC
- Arbitrator, Singapore International Arbitration Centre
- Arbitrator, South China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission
- Arbitrator, Shanghai International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission
- Arbitrator, Shanghai Arbitration Commission
- Arbitrator, China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission

Areas of Practice

Commercial Litigation & Arbitration, International Trade, Infrastructure and Project Finance

Main Achievements

Mr. Chen Luming has extensive experience in handling complex international disputes and specializes in foreign-related arbitration, litigation, mediation and negotiation. He specializes in handling construction disputes, disputes arising from foreign trade agreements, long-term procurement contracts, complex commercial contracts, equity and asset acquisition contracts and joint venture contracts, as well as disputes involving insurance and insolvency. Mr. Chen has handled numerous disputes involving asset management agreements and VAM agreements in recent years and thus possesses rich experience. Mr. Chen has assisted foreign parties in enforcing foreign arbitration awards in Chinese courts under the New York Convention. Mr. Chen has been an arbitrator at China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission and its sub-commissions since 1989. He has heard numerous and different types of arbitration cases during that period. Mr. Chen has represented Chinese companies in arbitration proceedings before Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre and New Singapore International Arbitration Centre. He is also an arbitrator of the two centres. Mr. Chen is familiar with American litigation law and was involved in criminal investigations with the U.S. Department of Justice in New York.

To investigate illegal trading of U.S. Treasury securities by the employees of Daiwa Bank, Inc. Mr. Chen participated in the

Mr. Chen's defense team. He was fully involved in document production before the U.S. Department of Justice and the criminal defense proceedings of the bank against the employee defendants in the Eastern District of New York. Chen also has extensive experience in foreign direct investment, project finance, corporate mergers and acquisitions, energy and infrastructure. Mr. Chen has been extensively involved in various foreign investment projects in China, including representing several multinational companies in direct investments in different industries, several multinational companies in acquisitions and mergers in China, foreign energy companies in development and investment in electricity, gas pipeline, wastewater treatment and other infrastructure projects in China, and foreign venture capital funds investing in China. Mr. Chen also represents Chinese companies have invested abroad, including in a Jamaican bauxite mine acquired on behalf of a Chinese private company.

Personal Honors

Chen Luming was recently crowned as a Leading Chinese Lawyer in Arbitration by Chambers Asia Pacific, a Leading Chinese Lawyer in Who's Who Legal in Litigation. He is also honored as Top 20 Chinese Top Lawyers by Clients Award by ALB.